

Custom Executive Coaching Retainer Packages

Our Custom Executive Coaching Retainer Packages are designed for clients with a range of interests and scheduling preferences for their private leadership and executive coaching sessions. Choose your level of engagement based upon your budget, specific objectives and the amount of private coaching desired. Our seasoned executive coaches have experience working with leaders from all organizational levels and are especially talented at confidential coaching assignments for C-Suite clients, key executives and leaders. Customized coaching is a time-effective option they often prefer.

Here's how our Custom Executive Coaching Retainer Packages work.

- First, select specific topics from our menu which best fit your coaching objectives (or tell us your own).
- Contact us at info@mariemoran.com or 888.284.2442 to set up a preliminary discovery call with one of our knowledgeable staff.
- You and our MMCo representative will review your retainer package options. We'll discuss your objectives, schedule, location, general budget, and other questions or preferences. You can select coaching delivery by phone, video conference, or in-person sessions at locations and intervals that best suit your schedule.
- Our Retainer Packages start at $5,500. Once you and our MMCo representative have agreed on specifics for your custom package, we'll confirm your retainer investment, match you with your consultant coach, and get the process started.
